

Tri-borough Music Hub: School Partners

What's in it for our school?

“Having the Tri-borough Music Hub takes my professionalism to a higher level and my pupils’ learning to higher level too. It encourages partnerships both at pupil and teacher levels. The Tri-borough Music Hub assists us in the raising of standards. It is an outstanding provider that I find essential to my work and my pupils’ learning”.

Who we are

The award-winning Tri-borough Music Hub (TBMH) is the lead organisation that oversees the delivery of music education in three West London boroughs - the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea; the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham; and City of Westminster - working with schools, pupils and the workforce. It is a centralised Local Authority service which receives core funding from the Department for Education via the Arts Council England.

The TBMH Strategic Partners are two internationally renowned organisations - The Royal Albert Hall and The Royal College of Music. In addition a dedicated and quality-assured group of delivery partner organisations, with evidence of a successful track record, work to meet the TBMH’s strategic aims

Mission Statement

The Tri-borough Music Hub aims to provide opportunities for all to develop a life-long love of music and realise their musical potential whilst developing their personal and social identity. A broad range of progressive musical pathways will be provided in partnership with outstanding music organisations that are committed to our ethos.

Our Aims

The overriding strategic purpose of the TBMH is three-fold:

- (1) to engage with all schools in the Tri-borough area, in order to reach all pupils and provide them with access to high-quality music education opportunities.
- (2) to raise standards and support musical progression for all pupils.
- (3) to ensure a broad range of outstanding musical opportunities for pupils, parents and the community.

To achieve this, the TBMH is committed to high-quality learning at all levels under-pinned by mutually beneficial partnerships which contribute to and support the music education within the three boroughs.

In order to better achieve our Strategic Aims the TBMH is looking to secure relationships with all schools as ‘School Partners’. This will help clarify the commitment from the TBMH to schools; and from schools to the TBMH. We hope that schools will recognise the support that the TBMH offers to schools and our role in championing school music as well as those that teach it, lead it, and advocate for it.

Our CPD programme and our performance events offer schools a range of opportunities to provide depth and breadth of musical learning for pupils and the music workforce. The TBMH is committed to supporting all schools to develop their in-school music provision. Our team of qualified music teachers and professional musicians can help guide, shape and grow the delivery of music in school.

Our full Service Level Agreement with details about how schools can buy-in cost-effective traded services for instrumental or vocal teaching (small group/whole class/ensemble leading) can be found on the website www.triboroughmusicclub.org or contact 020 3745 6024; or email info@triboroughmusicclub.org for more information.

2. Events and Performances

The TBMH delivers a range of performances and events for all schools over the course of an academic year, either directly delivered by the TBMH itself or with our partner organisations. Some of these opportunities are free of charge and some have a cost attached to them to reflect the scale of project and/or event. We will endeavour to offer the best value for money to schools.
