SUMMER
MUSIC
SCHOOL
2020

Monday 27th July - Saturday 8th August

The Tri-borough Music Hub & Partners are delighted to offer the children, young people and families who live or go to school within the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham; the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea; and the City of Westminster the opportunity to take part in numerous free music workshops, classes and courses this summer holiday!

The TBMH aims to provide opportunities for all to develop a life-long love of music & realise their musical potential whilst developing their personal/social identity.

A broad range of activities are provided completely free of charge in partnership with outstanding music organisations that are committed to our ethos.

Full details can be found below and on the events page of our website found here.

Who's Involved?

The award-winning Tri-borough Music Hub (TBMH) is the lead organisation that oversees the delivery of music education in three West London boroughs - the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham; the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea; and City of Westminster - working with schools, pupils, the workforce and the community. Through an agreed shared-services model, it is a centralised Local Authority service which receives core funding from the Department for Education via the Arts Council England delivering an extensive programme of musical learning in and out of school.

Further information about our organisation can be found here

The Royal Albert Hall is a world-class performance venue which delivers innovative education programmes and outreach projects for thousands of children each year, from schools matinees to Victorian tours, maths workshops and careers sessions.

Further information about our organisation can be found here

The Royal College of Music's Learning and Participation programme, RCM Sparks, provides inspiring opportunities for families, schools and young people to engage with music education.
