

TBMH Autumn Term 2020 Online

We are introducing a new Digital Ensemble Pilot Project that will see 6 new ensembles offered.

- The Digital Ensemble Pilot Project will run for 10 weeks, featuring 3 choirs and 3 instrumental ensembles. They will start the week commencing 28 September and finish the week ending 11 December.
- All ensembles will learn repertoire taught via Zoom, with supporting digital resources, leading to a digital performance at the end of the 10 weeks.
- Each ensemble will be charged at £45 per term (remissions available).

Online Digital Instrumental Ensembles:

Digital First Sounds

- Mondays, 4.15–5.00pm
- Suitable for pupils with at least 2 terms tuition on their instrument, up to pupils who have taken Grade 1.
- 10 sessions, starting on Monday 28 September with one week off during half term.
- A first ensemble for pupils who have learnt a minimum of 5 notes on their instrument. This online ensemble aims to boost pupil knowledge of rhythm and pitch through musical games, as well as playing along to first pieces in a supportive environment. Resources will be available to use outside of sessions including video tutorials, backing tracks and practice parts. Some video footage of the experience may be put together to celebrate progress.

Digital Breakout Band

- Mondays, 5.00–6.00pm
- Suitable for pupils who are between Grades 2–4
- 10 sessions, starting on Monday 28 September with one week off during half term.
- A flexible ensemble open to all instrumentalists Grades 2–4. Full recordings of repertoire, backing tracks and individual parts will be available for use outside of sessions. Each member will be asked to record themselves playing their part, culminating in a video performance being put together at the end of term.

Digital Symphonic Band

- Wednesdays, 5.00–6.00pm
- Suitable for pupils who are between Grades 5–8
- 10 sessions, starting on Wednesday 30 September with one week off during half term.
- A flexible ensemble open to all advanced instrumentalists. Full recordings of repertoire, backing tracks and individual parts will be available for use outside of sessions. Some online rehearsals will be the full ensemble, and some will be instrument specific sectionals. Each member will be asked to record themselves playing their part, culminating in a video performance being put together at the end of term.

Online Digital Choirs:

Family Voices

- Tuesdays 4.15pm–5.00pm
- Suitable for children aged 4–7 (Reception, Year 1, Year 2) and their parents/carers
- Have fun singing together in this choir for all the family. You'll develop your voice, play musical games, and learn new songs to sing together. You'll be given resources to use outside of sessions, including tutorial videos, practice resources and backing tracks. You'll also take part in a recording project, culminating in a video performance at the end of term.

Junior Voices

- Thursdays 4.15pm–5pm
- Suitable for children aged 7–11 (Years 3–6)

- Develop your singing and musicianship skills and make new friends in our Junior Voices choir. You'll sing in unison and in harmony learning a wide range of songs, from traditional to pop. You'll be given resources to use outside of sessions, including tutorial videos, practice resources and backing tracks. You'll also take part in a recording project, culminating in a video performance at the end of term.

Next Level Voices

- Thursdays 5.00pm–6.00pm
- Suitable for children aged 11-18 (Years 7–13)
- Develop advanced singing and musicianship skills in our Next Level Voices choir. The choir will perform a large range of repertoire in largely three-part harmony. Some rehearsals will be sectionals, and some will be full choir. You'll be given resources to use outside of sessions, including tutorial videos, practice resources and backing tracks. You'll also take part in a recording project, culminating in a video performance at the end of term.
