

*“One action can spark a movement.
If we work together, we can create a better world where everyone is equal and free from inequalities.”*
Amnesty International

The Tri-borough Music Hub proudly presents A Musical Rebellion, a new commission by Sally Greaves – a musical exploration of belonging, identity, community and the future through the voices of young people. Join us at the Royal Albert Hall on Tuesday, 29 June 2027 for an event celebrating youth perspectives and creative power.

A Musical Rebellion invites young people to shape a powerful anthem for their generation, expressing both the realities they face and their hopes for a better future. The programme champions optimism, harmony, and constructive change, creating a sense of belonging for all.

Two Pillars / Six Themes

Pillar 1: The Right to Belong				Pillar 2: The Right to a Safe Future
Personal: personal attributes and elements of identity				Global: the world young people will inherit
Themes
Racial Justice	Gender Equality	SEND Equity Access &amp; Voice	LGBTQ+ Equity	Climate and Environmental Justice	Peace

Our partnership supports Article 31 of the UNCRC, ensuring every child’s right to rest, relax, play, and participate in cultural life.

Every child has the right to rest, relax, play, and participate in cultural and creative activities.

We are guided by the UNCRC’s principles of non-discrimination, respect for children’s views, and access to education for all.

Let’s make the change together through music, with hope at the core.