

Has self-evaluated using the tri-music together

Early Years Music Evaluation Tool

categorised as

PLATINUM

PLATINUM

In addition to all aspects of SILVER & GOLD

Children's music making is documented and shared with parents/carers

There is a range of quality musical instruments and resources available

Practitioners have an awareness of the audio environment and how to use recorded music effectively

The music lead shares new songs, games and ideas to further develop the music provision

The music lead and/or other members of staff lead CPD sessions for other local settings to support the development of their music provision

Is it evident that music plays an important role in the life and ethos of the setting